A community sing, led by Don 5, opened the meeting of Cub Pack 730-C in the Casimir School Cafeterium. Mrs. Velma Klien's Den 4 presented the opening flag ceremony.

Skits included "Tail of the Spotted Cow," presented by Den 1 under leadership of Mrs. Barbara Bebeck and "Master Magician," Den 2, Mrs. Elenore Capuano.

Den mother's plaque was presented as an award to Mrs. Rita Bell, retired den mother.

Awards presented to cubs included the following:

How desperately difficult it is to be honest with oneself. It is much easier to be honest with other people. — Edward F. Benson.

Three members of Explorer Post 242X, sponsored by Christ the King Lutheran Church, were presented with their Eagle Scout ranks at an Eagle Court of Honor Nov. 25. Two other members of the post received the God and Country Award.

Wayne D. Johnson, Ronald A. Kennedy, and Donald Oldt received the highest honor in Scouting at the Eagle Court. The Pro Deo et Patria award, highest award of the Lutheran Church, was presented to James Jones and Dennis Erickson.

Guest speaker for the court of honor was Floyd Forker, a past president of the Los Angeles Area Council and currently a member of the council's executive board. A film, "Gordon Cooper — Astronaut and Scouter" was shown during the evening.

An Eagle Honor Roll plaque, inscribed with the names of the 15 boys of Troop 242 and 242X who have thus far received the Eagle Award, was presented to the Men's Brotherhood of the church. Mariners of the Sea Maid Ship were hostesses for the evening.

Ethics in politics can well acquire a scriptural foundation — minus cant and hypocrisy. The Bible is a textbook for realists as well as theologians. — Charles P. Taft.

STUDENT AWARDS . . . Leslie Panter, (from left) president of Carson district Optimist Club, presents awards on behalf of the club to Linda Gilmore and Tom Cochran, selected as two most outstanding students at Carson High School, in the office of Bernard J. Donahue, Carson High principal. Awarding students on basis of citizenship and scholarship is part of the club's annual "Youth Appreciation Week."

HELPS BANDSMEN . . . Paul Schneider, president of the Carson Chamber of Commerce, takes delivery of a fruit cake he purchased from Ron Kelbaugh, member of the Los Caballeros Youth Band. Fruit cake being sold by band members between now and Christmas will help defray costs of new hats for the musicians, according to Director Bob Cotton.
